

South of Brittany

A holiday where sea meets nature

Discover a multitude of natural environments and incredible man-made creations! There are some fascinating historical remains worth visiting. Here, everything is big: the planes, the cruise ships, the marshes - and children's eyes when they see the open sea!

By the seaside!

Let yourself be dazzled as you discover one location after another... Your route will take you to the little beach made famous by the film "Monsieur Hulot's Holiday", in Saint-Marc-sur-Mer, the vast La Baule Bay, the rocky coast at Le Pouliguen, fishing ports like Le Croisic and towns like Guérande. At the foot of the medieval fortress, the town's famous "fleur de sel" salt crystallises in the sunshine.

By the river!

The seaside resort of Saint-Nazaire offers cultural events and original visits: Escal'Atlantic retraces the history of Atlantic ocean liners. Visit the naval shipyard and get a behind-the-scenes look at the construction of today's "Sea Giants". Airbus also welcomes visitors looking to explore the birthplace of today's largest carriers.

Our other favourites

- Nature: the Brière regional natural park, a freshwater marsh you can explore by boat that is well worth a visit!
- Themed days: the machines at Île de Nantes with the Elephant and the Carousel of undersea worlds. Fantastic for young and old alike!
- Delicacies: a seafood platter is the order of the day, with a little glass of Muscadet, the wine of Nantes. Salted butter caramels, crêpes and buckwheat pancakes are the proof that you are definitely in Brittany... and its History!

Natural curiosities!

Le Croisic Oceanarium plunges you into every ocean in the world. The centre is home to over 4,000 animals. Planète Sauvage is a wildlife park located between Saint-Nazaire and Nantes. You can follow one of the trails or take a trip in a bush truck with a guide.

