

Western Mediterranean

A region in the colours of Catalonia!

Choose an authentic family-friendly seaside resort on the Mediterranean coast. This historic region is located in a verdant setting by the seaside, and its many facets will wow visitors of all ages. There is so much to see and do - you won't have time to get bored!

Between the mountains and the sea

Give in to the charm of the flora at the Catalan Pyrenees regional natural park. The Canigou Massif looks out over the plain, and tastings are available at the Corbières vineyard. The Albera Massif, which gives visitors a taster of the Pyrenees, offers hiking above the vines of Banyuls and the sea which offers nautical activities.

Neighbouring Spain

Treat yourself to a Catalan getaway: visit the charming village of Cadaqués and Sant Ferran Castle in Figueras, or take a stroll along the ramparts of Tossa de Mar that overlook the sea... You are bound to fall in love with the unmissable city of Barcelona: Park Güell, the Sagrada Família, Catalonia Plaza, the old port... ¡Magnífico!

A rich past

Come to Mont-Louis, the highest fortified town in France, and discover its 17th Century citadel. The village of Castelnou is one of the most remarkable sites in Catalonia and is absolutely worth a visit. There are also other villages worth visiting, some of which are listed in the «Plus Beaux Villages de France®»: Villefranche-de-Conflent, Evol, Lagrasse, etc.

Our other favourites

- Original ideas: the Yellow Train from Cerdagne will take you to the heart of the Western Pyrenees, or you can take a walk at the foot of the "fairy chimney" at Ille-sur-Têt,
- Delicacies: the sun and the warmth here are great for fruit, vegetables and vines, and seafood is always a popular choice,
- Visits and outings: the royal castle at Collioure, the Cerdère Banyuls natural marine reserve, urban living in Perpignan or alternatively a voyage to prehistoric times in Tautavel Museum.

The "Orgues" of Ille-sur-Têt

Beach... and mountains!

